

Call for nominations - Deadline August 20, 2018

As a member of the Arts Council of Midland (ACM), we invite you to nominate one person, a couple or a named group as your organization's 2018 Distinguished Volunteer. The person(s) your organization chooses will be contacted and invited to attend our ACM Annual Meeting event to be recognized as your organization's Distinguished Arts Volunteer. From all nominated and recognized volunteers, one will be selected ACM's Arts Volunteer of the Year! (Please note: Only one nomination and award per organization)

A Distinguished Arts Volunteer should be someone who has a proven record of accomplishment supporting Midland's art community through exceptional volunteer work, special financial support, or excellent personal talent volunteering to promote local interest in the arts. The nominee need not be a member of the Arts Council but the nominating organization must.

At Arts Council's Annual Meeting you will be able to enjoy refreshments, help honor arts volunteers, be the first to learn the recipients of the 2019 Arts Council Subgrants and meet our Board of Trustees for 2018 – 2019.

Arts Council of Midland Annual Meeting
Tuesday, September 25, 2018 Location to be announced!

Please return a completed nomination form (by August 20, 2018) via e-mail only (hand-written nominations will not be accepted) to: info@acmidland.org

To request a nomination form please visit the ACM Website www.acmidland.org or email info@acmidland.org with the subject line "Volunteer Form." For additional information please call 687-1149.

Nominee Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: (business/cell) _____ (home) _____

Phone: (business/cell) _____ (home) _____

City, state, zip: _____

E-mail

Your name:

Organization: E-mail

Please describe the actions of your organization's nominee. How does their work promote the arts?
(200 words, maximum.)